LORIMER MAY GO ON STAND TO-DAY

He Will Tell Probers of His Election to United States Senate.

Washington, January 8.—Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, did not tentify today before the Senate investigating committee. The committee probing into his election held an executive session, and then adjourned, with the prospect that Mr. Lorimer would go on in his own defense to-morrow. The committee announced that Edward Hines, of Chicago, "who is accused of putting Lorimer over," would be recalled to the witness chair. He will be asked about a meeting in the Chicago Union League Club immediate by after Lorimer's election, at which it is charged plans were laid for collecting $100,000 to defray the alleged expenses of electing Lorimer.

The committee put into the record letters which H. H. Kohlsaat wrote to Senators Crane, Culiom, Root and La Follette, which were largely history.

Staunton, Va., January 8.—Sunday morning just after the Holy Communion had been administered at the Second Presbyterian Church, J. Samuel Robertson, sixty-nine years old, a valeran, who had recently moved here from Spottswood, suddenly died of heart failure. He was an elder in old Providence Church, and had been invited to assist in administering the communion, having passed around one of the goblets of wine.

As the minister was giving out a hymn, Mr. Robertson, who was sitting on a front seat, fell over against a man sitting beside him, and it was removed at once to a room in the church, and it was found that he was dead. Considerable stir prevailed, and one woman fainted.

Mr. Robertson is survived by one son, who was present in the church.
